NORTHERN CALIFORNIA NEWS

THE FIRESIDE CIRCLE

Children Celebrate Family Re- union With Their Aged Parents.

YREKA, Oct. 11.—A happy family reunion occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cleland in Yreka last Sunday. There were eight children born to this lovely pioneer couple, and all were there in the flesh except the daughter, who departed at the age of nine months, and who knows but that she, too, was there unseen, participating in the joy of the occasion, says the News.

Those present were: Mrs. Ella J. De Witt of Yreka, W. J. Cleland of Spokane, Wash., Mrs. Ida W. Hollingsworth of San Francisco, Mrs. Mary L. Acly of Visalia, Mrs. Alice Orr of Edgewood, Frank S. Cleland of San Francisco and Fred L. Cleland of Yreka. It was the first time for fifteen years that they had all been together.

Grandfather and Grandmother Cleland have been married for 52 years, Mr. Cleland being 83 years old and Mrs. Cleland 75 years. Both were born in the state of New York, Mr. Cleland descending directly from Irish ancestry and Mrs. Cleland from Puritan stock.

Mr. Cleland left New York for the gold fields of California on March 16, 1852, voyaging around Cape Horn and arriving at San Francisco on July 16, 1852. After visiting a few of the camps below he started north and arrived in Yreka in September, 1852, and has been here or whereabouts ever since, except for a trip back to the Empire state in 1855. The young man did not forget the love of his youth, and in '55 he took the long and arduous journey back to his old home, where he married Miss Harriet Scovel, who is here today, the mother and grandmother of a long line of native sons and daughters.

Mr. Cleland is the last of his father's family. Only last spring his remaining sister and brother died within a few days of each other, leaving him the patriarch of the Cleland blood. He and his beloved consort are both hale and hearty and bid fair to remain among us yet for many years. Such is the wish of their host of friends.

BORN.

At Wheatland, May 7th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. Walters, a son.

In Yreka, May 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Conner, a son.

In Yreka, April 29th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Powers, a son.

At Groat's Ferry, April 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. Abner Groat, a daughter.

DIED.

At Sawyer's Bar, Klamath county, April 14th, Agnes Hickey, aged 3 years and 8 months.

At M. Adam's Creek, April 16th, Isaac Allen, aged 10 years.

President's Message

Hello Lovers of History and Genealogy!

As I write this letter, I am looking out the window at a beautiful morning. It might reach 70 degrees today, even though the forecast is for more cold weather later in the week. A pair of Canada geese are courting and wandering through the nearby meadow. Spring is either here or right around the corner!

Your genealogy society continues with its mission: to provide a center for research; to assist people with their questions and to provide training. Increasingly, our training is being offered using Zoom. It is a convenient way of taking classes, and interacting with others. Our Zoom classes are being presented by real experts, covering a variety of genealogical research issues.

If you have not tried a Zoom class—this might be your time to do it. We advertise our classes through email notices to members, plus on social media. Facebook pages that we use include Siskiyou Historic Tours, Siskiyou County Grapevine and You Know You Grew up in Yreka When... You may sign up for classes on our website: <https://siskiyougenealogy.org> or you can sign up at the research center at 320 W. Miner Street, Yreka. If you are interested in local schools and their history, consider attending a presentation by Kathy Graves, on Saturday, April 19th at 2:00 p.m. It will be held at Yreka Preservation, 304 Lane Street, Yreka. These periodic presentations are geared toward interesting and local historic topics. Later this year we hope to have a program by the local black powder historic group. We hope to see you at one or more of these programs.

Take care and remember to keep in touch with your society as you continue your family research. We are here for you and need to know what we can do to help you in your endeavors.

TAKES POISON TO JOIN WIFE IN DEATH

Perry Fisher Ends His Life
When Informed That She Could Not Survive
Illness.

WOMAN PASSED AWAY IN IGNORANCE OF TRAGEDY

Deceased Formerly Was One of the Most Prosperous Citizens of Denver.

That he might be with his wife in death, Perry Fisher, formerly a prominent real estate dealer in Denver and owner of once valuable mining properties, committed suicide in Sacramento, Cal., Monday by taking poison. He had been informed that his wife, whose health had been poor many months, could not survive.

"I will join her on the other side," he said.

He swallowed a dose of poison and died almost instantly. A few minutes later his aged wife passed away, not knowing of her husband's death.

News of the two deaths reached Clellan Fisher, their son, of 2546 South Logan avenue, yesterday. A daughter of the aged couple, Mrs. Frank Stockton, lives at 2348 Welton street. Full particulars had not been received by them last night.

Mrs. Fisher had been suffering from acute heart trouble the last two years and her husband also was in feeble health. Mr. Fisher has been brooding over his financial losses since he left Denver, and it is thought that this, in a great measure, was the cause of his suicide. The entire fortune of Mr. Fisher was recently swept away and his holdings in California mining stocks, in which he had placed the remnant of his savings, were of an unstable nature.

Mr. Fisher formerly lived at Twenty-third and Welton streets. The family at that time was recognized as among the most wealthy in Denver. Mr. Fisher furnished the backing for the construction of many of Denver's largest buildings. When Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left for Sacramento several years ago they left the control of their real estate interests to their son, Clellan Fisher.

NOTE: They died at Humbug in Siskiyou county, not Sacramento as stated in this obituary.

Harriet "Hattie" Nelson (Fisher) Mitchell

by Linda E. Freeman

Harriet "Hattie" Nelson Fisher was the second of ten children born on April 19, 1864 in Fountain City, Colorado to Perry William Fisher and Lucetta Coplen.¹ Hattie's father and several of his children were big-time miners.² The Fisher family moved around Colorado, living in El Paso County in 1870, Hinsdale County in 1880, and in Denver by 1882. Hattie Fisher married Mortimer Hill in 1884 at her parents' home in Denver.³ They had one child who lived to adulthood, Perry Jefferson Hill, born on December 18, 1885. By 1900, Hattie and her son Perry Hill lived with her parents at Denver.⁴

Hattie, her son, parents, and several siblings moved to Siskiyou County in 1901.⁵ By 1903, they were associated with the Mount Vernon Gold Mine Company.⁶ In 1905, Hattie's father gave her and W. H. Allison "one-fourth interest in Rose group of mines, consisting of the Nigger [sic] Boy, Mineral Slide, Ohio, Twalla and Excelsior mines on Ash Creek Cottonwood District."⁷ Also in 1905, "Mrs. Hattie Hill, a Colorado woman," married David Cuddihy, fellow miner and "proprietor of the old-time famous Cuddihy Hotel of Happy Camp."⁸

In May 1907, Hattie's parents Perry and Lucetta Fisher died (see obituary p 3).⁹ In 1907, after her parents' deaths, Hattie and David Cuddihy moved to Yreka,¹⁰ and the following year they moved to Oak Bar.¹¹ Together, they owned the Bonanza placer claim in the Humbug district.¹² That year they worked the Side Hill and Lucky Jack placer claims in the Happy Camp district.¹³ In 1909, Hattie and Emma J. Beard, wife of the Siskiyou County Superior Court judge, mined the Black Bird quartz mine in the Happy Camp district.¹⁴ Later, Emma's daughter Susie Beard would visit Hattie when she moved to Humbug.¹⁵

By 1910, Hattie lived with her son Perry Hill on Humbug Creek, not far from her sister Bertha and her husband Oliver H. Poor.¹⁶ Bertha (Fisher) Poor was involved in Eastern Star.¹⁷ Although Perry had been involved in mining when they first came to Siskiyou County, by this time he was a forest ranger.¹⁸ Their relative Lotta Hill came all the way from Santa Rosa to visit them here.¹⁹ In 1911, Hattie was working the Scribner Mine on the South Fork of Sucker Creek as well as the Red Cap Mine, a quartz claim, both in the Humbug district.²⁰ The newspaper noted, "Mrs. Hattie Cuddihy, one of Humbug's most successful pocket hunters, is getting some very rich ore at the Scribner Mine."²¹ She sold her interest in the Rose group of mines to W. H. Allison.²²

On Election Day in 1911, the male voters passed the Equal Suffrage Amendment, making California the sixth state in the Union to allow women to vote.²³ "Mrs. Hattie Cuddihy of Humbug was the first and Mrs. Maud E. Steele of Yreka second to register as a [female] voter in Siskiyou County."²⁴ In a 1911 paper, it was noted that Mrs. J. Cuddihy and Charles H. Mitchell of Humbug, stayed in a Yreka "caravansary."²⁵ The two of them married later that month.²⁶ Hattie and Charles sold their Granite mines in the Humbug district, and Charles deeded half interest in his quartz claim at Humbug to Hattie in 1914.²⁷

By 1916, Hattie and Charles Mitchell lived at Orleans in Humboldt County, where he was a miner.²⁸ Charles was still in Humboldt County in 1920, where he was a fireman in a logging camp, but Hattie was not living with him.²⁹ She was back on her "mining claim on Humbug" by 1921.³⁰ Charles was back in Cecilville in 1922,³¹ but he returned to Humboldt County in 1923.³² Hattie remained at Humbug Creek and was still prospecting in 1930. She died on December 1, 1934 at Yreka, and is buried at Evergreen Cemetery with her parents and siblings.³³ Hattie's son died in 1938, and is also buried at Evergreen Cemetery.³⁴ Her third husband returned to Yreka where he died in 1946.³⁵ He is also buried at Evergreen Cemetery.³⁶

Woman Prospector In Yreka Is Dead

YREKA (Siskiyou Co.), Dec. 5.—Siskiyou County lost one of her picturesque characters in the death of Mrs. Harriett Nelson Mitchel.

Mrs. Mitchel, who had spent the last thirty-four years in Siskiyou County, was a familiar figure in the mining world. Despite her advanced years she prospected during the Summer months, carrying her pick, shovel and gold pan far into the mountains.

Found Many Pockets.

Prospecting and mining was a hobby with her, which she turned to profit. She traced and took out many pockets in the Humbug section, some as high as $2,000.

Mrs. Mitchel was the mother of Perry Hill, well known in forestry circles in this county. The funeral services were held to-day in the Kunz & Bills Funeral Chapel in Yreka. Interment was in the Evergreen Cemetery.

AT WEED OPERATIONS

'Mother of the Month'

Attractive Mrs. Claire Vaughn, Weed, with her chubby little son, Michael.

Employees Transferred

Jack Sexton has been transferred from the Payroll Department to the Treating Department in the Office. William Bird has accepted the position of timekeeper in the Payroll Department.

Mrs. Edna M. Bright, secretary to J. M. White, recently spent a few days in Sacramento and San Francisco shopping. Mrs. Goldie Crooks, formerly of Longview, returned with Mrs. Bright for a brief vacation in Weed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White spent almost a week in the Bay District, where they visited their daughter, Mary Katherine and son, Julian.

Bob McCoy of the Weed Mercantile Company and Arletta Davidson, head nurse at the Weed hospital, met with an auto accident near Redding, April 20th. Both were quite badly cut and shaken but are now back at their jobs.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Taylor on Main Street will soon be ready for occupancy.

P. W. Duncan, manager of the Weed Hotel, has returned to work after a week's illness.

Jude White, Jack Mantle and Tom Mardahl met Douglas Tennant in Klamath Falls, and after visiting there and at Dorris returned to Tennant, where Mr. Mantle had his first visit with the Logging Department.

Harry Davidson, Veneer Plant, superintendent recently had the forefinger of the left hand amputated. The infection resulted from a splinter wound some weeks ago.

3,600,000 feet of lumber is made into toothpicks each year.

Service Pins

One award for 30 years, one for 20 years, a single 10-year pin, and 20 five-year pins comprised the April service awards at Weed, Mrs. Lureta Carpenter, LOG correspondent, reported. More than a century and a half of Long-Bell service was represented by the awards.

Old-timer was John Scalise, whose pin bore the "30" numerals. Gust Couris received the 20 year pin, while the 10-year award went to Herman Borgman.

The 20 employees who received their first five-year pins were: Ramola Acquistapace, Joseph Murphy, Ed Anderson, William Barni, Jane Biglione, Earl Covington, E. S. Fagan, Roosevelt Gallon, W. R. Halsey, George Howard, N. Hurst, Alfred S. Linville, Raymond Miller, Roscoe Samples, Luigi Sartor, Eddie Sewell, Williard H. Stone, Ben Tarrango, H. A. Thatcher, and Odom Walker.

GIRLS OPERATE SAW

Door sandermen at Weed got unusually good trucking service recently when pretty Lea Cavarzan and Neva Summeral took over the band saw behind the sanders, LOG's correspondent informs.

Leslie Kegg has returned to his job at the "sticker" after spending three months at Fort Miley hospital, San Francisco, for observation and treatment.

Rudolph Abramson, head door driver, was absent a week recently for an operation, while Andrew Henry was home with mumps.

Billie Shannon has advanced to the filing room at the Sawmill.

Sunday fishermen at Fish Lake in Oregon recently were Earl Borde and Ted Garrett. Richard Realdsen spent a weekend at Red Bluff Round-Up with his mother.

A recent traveler to San Francisco was Henry Collins, who visited his mother in the Golden Gate City.

SAWMILL

Logging Contractor Elmer Sheldon, has begun logging a tract of Long-Bell timber at Grass Lake, 25 miles north of Weed, with seven trucks making two and sometimes three trips daily. He is unloading 70 to 80 thousand feet a day in the pond.

Clyde Morris has been out with a broken collarbone and a crushed hand, result of an auto accident which occurred when his car went over a twenty-five foot embankment and landed on the Southern Pacific railroad track near the Mt. Shasta summer school. A few minutes after Clyde climbed out of the wreck, a train hit the car and demolished it. Roy Allesio is taking Clyde's place feeding the log slip during his absence.

Charlie Bell is back on the job tending the "hog" after his recent illness.
